

Your name:
Date of drawing:

Common Name of Specimen:

Magnification (if observed with microscope):

Specimen is [live/dead/preserved]:

Collected from [location]:

Collected on [date]:

Taxonomic Classification

Kingdom:

Phylum:

Class:

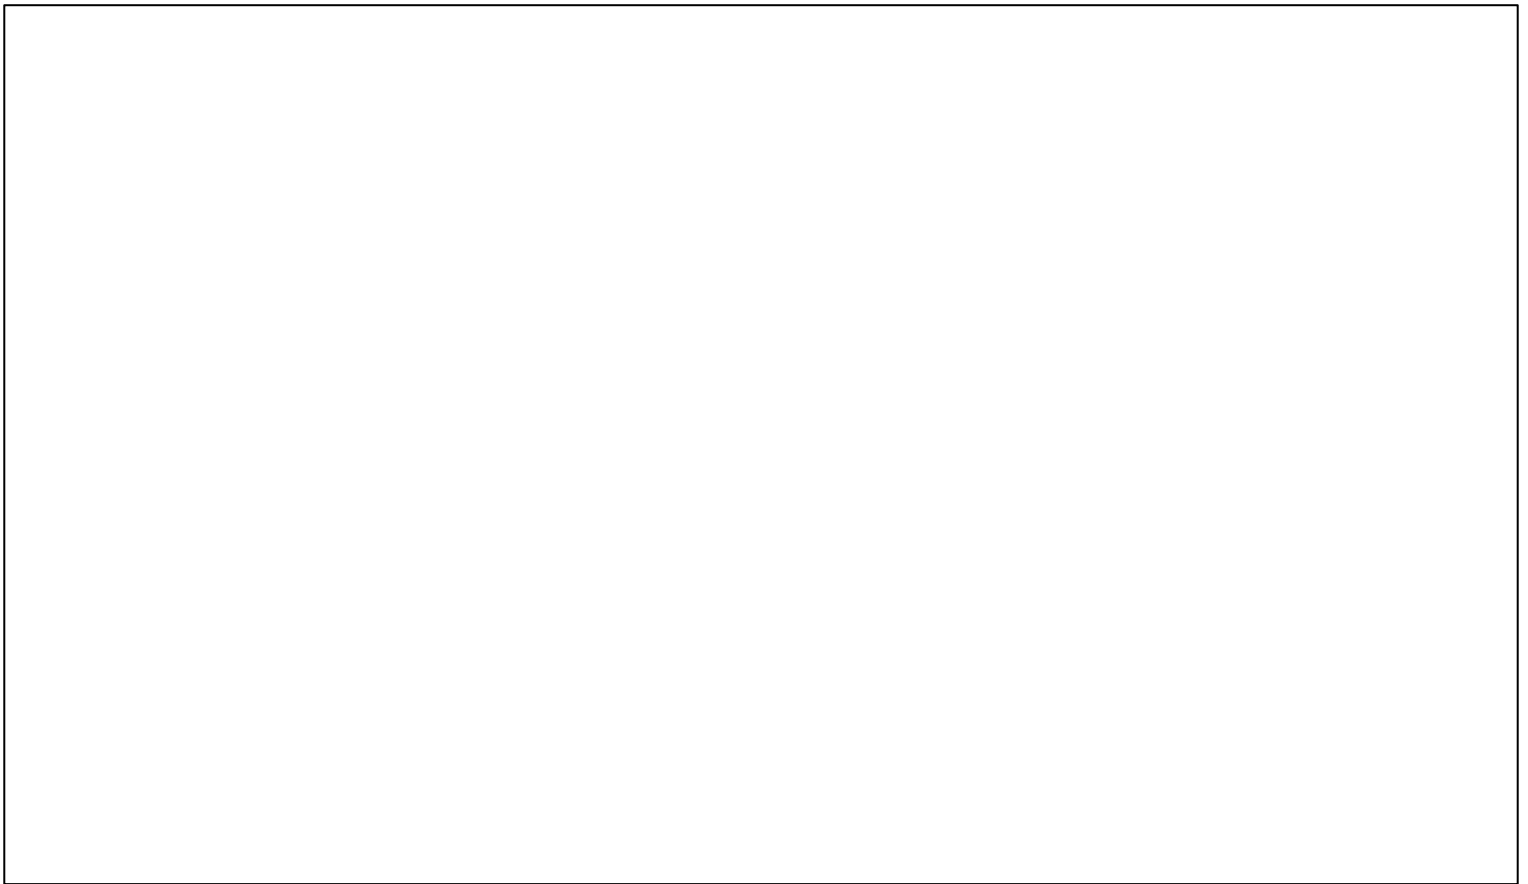

Order:

Family:

Genus species:

Illustrate your specimen

Accurate, Big, Colorful, Detailed & Explained. Use a ruler for nice straight lines.

Written description based on observations:

Information learned through research:

Your name
Date of drawing

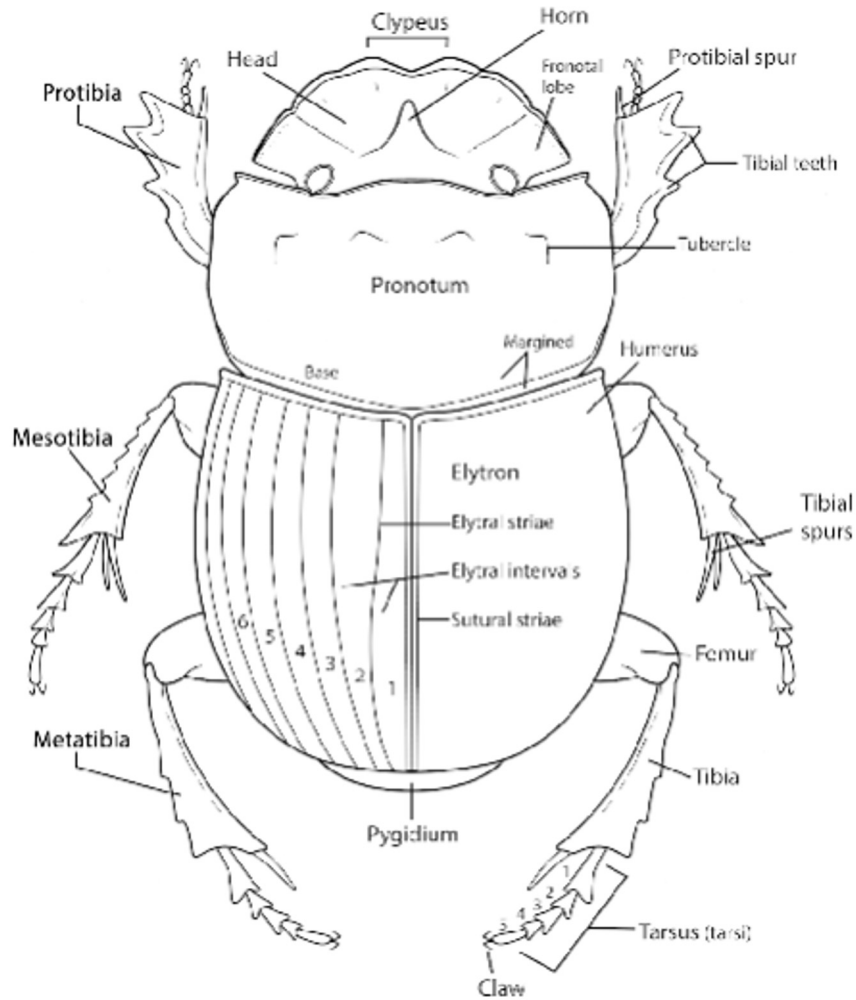

EXAMPLE SCIENTIFIC ILLUSTRATION

Taxonomic Classification

Kingdom:
Phylum:
Class: Order: Family:
Genus species:

Common Name of Specimen

Label in the greatest possible detail! Use a ruler for nice straight lines

Magnification (if observed with microscope)

Specimen is [live/dead/preserved]

Collected from [location]

Collected on [date]

Written description of any details about the specimen not captured by the drawing (color, texture, movement)

Information about this species that you learn through additional research. Life history attributes like range, behavior, etc